OCTOBER 2017 – NEWSLETTER

Volume 20, No. 22

Our Mission Statement – As joyful followers of Jesus Christ, we welcome and care for all people. We boldly proclaim the Good News, share our faith, and love God by serving others.

Our Statement of Welcome – Accepting those who Christ has already accepted, Kure Memorial Lutheran Church affirms that all people, regardless of race, national origin, sexual orientation, or economic status, are unconditionally welcome to our community of faith and are invited to join us in worship, fellowship, and ministry.

Newsletter article for October 2017

“The righteous is given through faith in Jesus to all who believe. There is no difference between Jew and Gentile, for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God and all are justified freely by his grace...”
(Romans 3:22-24)

The Cross. It is an image of God’s grace, no matter where we see it. Usually we see them in prominent locations, such as the top of a church or on the side of building. Some churches, like ours, has a free-standing cross near the church entry. Then again, there are times we notice them in unusual places...and only when the light is at just the right angle!

In whatever ways they appear to us, they bring to mind the hope of God’s love, grace and forgiveness that came to us through the death of Jesus on the cross.

This all makes me think about Martin Luther’s Reformation theme of “Grace Alone”. The understanding that it is only through God’ grace that we are forgiven and given the gift of salvation. We are set free from the laws and commandments that point us to our sinfulness. Sure, the law and the commandments are important to give us the guidance for our lives that we need to treat one another with love, honor and respect. But the forgiveness and grace we receive, and the salvation that is promised to us, doesn’t hang on those things. Rather our forgiveness, grace and salvation literally hangs on the cross...and what happened to Jesus on it! It’s probably something that we know already. But it’s always something good to be reminded of!

The 500th Anniversary of the Reformation is October 31! Churches throughout the world, including us will celebrate it on Reformation Sunday, October 29! So for the month of October, in celebration of the 500th anniversary of the Reformation, we are having a Sunday series touching on the essential teachings of Martin Luther that form our Lutheran understanding of our faith! This is what it will look like:

October 1: “Jesus is the Best Idea Ever”.

Readings: Galatians 2:16-21; Luke 24:44-48

October 8: “The Bible is God’s Word for You, But it isn’t God!”.

Readings: Psalm 1; John 1:1-5; 10-14

October 15: “Forgiveness Will Change Your Life!”.

Readings: Psalm 51:1-12; John 20:19-23; 2 Corinthians 5:14-21

October 22: “Finding God in the Last Place You Would Look!”.

Readings: 1 Corinthians 1:18-2:2; Mark 15:33-39

October 29: “It’s All About Grace!”.

Readings: Romans 8:19-28; John 8:31-36

I hope you will journey with us through the month of October...and beyond!

Surfin' on God's Grace!

Pastor Dan

Youth Ministry:

Our Fall retreat is coming up, it will be here before we know it! We will be going to Boone, NC to do some hiking, volunteering, and having tons of fun together as a youth group!!! The trip is from Friday, November 10th through Sunday, November 12th. We will leave the church Friday morning and returning home Sunday afternoon. I will be sending out emails around mid October with more information regarding our schedule, as well as a packing list.

Don't forget, we've started youth group back up again on Sunday nights from 5:00-6:30!! This year we're planning more outings and mini fields trips during youth group time that you don't want to miss!! Everyone is encouraged to bring friends (grades 6-12), come and have some fun with us!!

October 8 there will be no youth group!! We will resume the following week!!!

Heart of Hope Walk/Run/Relay 2017: We want to thank everyone who participated in the Heart of Hope event again this year, either through walking, supporting, praying for or donating towards! This is a great event for us to participate in together, to support the hunger needs in our community. This year the Heart of Hope event raised $6000 which will be distributed between the feeding ministry at Carolina Beach Elementary School and the Help Center! Between these three photos, we have captured everyone who came out that day! Thanks again for participating!

Beach Worship: We want to thank everyone who made this season of Beach Worship such an amazing experience! From the folks who attend, to the musicians who share their music, to the folks who help transport the equipment from the parking lot to the beach...and back again, to the people who help set up and help take down our worship supplies. It takes a team to make it happen and we have a wonderful team! The summers seem to go by so quickly and our time of worship on the beach is certainly a treasured part of that! Mark your calendars...We will begin again on Wednesday, May 30, 2018!

Island Day: Thank you to everyone who came out to Island Day this year to either help set up, take down, come and help greet folks as well as to stop by to say hello! It was a fun day and the weather was beautiful! We'll be planning to be out there in Carolina Beach for next year's event!

Cottage Meetings: We will be holding "Cottage Meetings" toward the end of October! These are meetings that take place every two years or so in peoples' homes, designed for small groups of our church folks, with guided conversations about our community of faith and the ministries we share. It provides us with opportunities for conversation, fellowship and sharing our dreams for the future. The theme for this years' cottage meetings is, "Continuing Our Journey Together!" Be on the lookout for an invitation in your mail which will have more information!

Children's Sunday school ministry: We have our plans in place and are excited about the year ahead! We look forward to seeing you in worship where the children will worship with their families for the first 15 minutes or so and then leave for Sunday school following the "Children's Time". They will return to the sanctuary during the sharing of the peace, for communion and the blessing. We look forward to seeing you here!

Attraction Books For 2018 Are Here! Again this year, we are selling Attractions Books for your convenience and to raise funds for our upcoming trip to Costa Rica in 2018! If you purchased them before, you know there are lots of great coupons in them for a variety of different places. The cost is $25, of which $10 goes to the church! Please contact me or Rebecca in the church office if you would like one...or two...or three! They do make great gifts! Please spread the word with your family and friends. Carolina Beach Elementary School will not be selling them this year, so lots of people on the island will be looking for them! If you know folks who will want them, please let me know and you can take a stack of them with you to sell! Check with people in your places of work or in your neighborhoods! Please contact me if you have any questions.

Synod E-News: The North Carolina Synod sends out a weekly "e-news", via email to keep us up to date on things going on with the Lutheran church throughout the state! It is very informative and you will see several things you can get involved in at the synod level! To subscribe to the weekly "e-news", go to the synod homepage: www.nclutheran.org. Go to the bottom right corner of the page where it says: "Subscribe to our synod e-newsletters" and click where it says: "Click to Join" and put in your name and email address. It's pretty simple! The synod website also has many resources for adults, teens and families. Please check out: <http://www.vibrantfaithathome.org/library/library-by-category-col-150/library-category-bible-story> for online devotions for a variety of uses!

Sunday Lunch: Our Sunday Lunch ministry continues to develop. We are partnering with the weekend food program at Carolina Beach Elementary, and have made new contacts with people who are working to provide food for hungry people on the island. These new contacts have encouraged us to expand the number of lunches provided on Sunday, so join us in preparing the lunches during the Fellowship Time. In addition to preparing the lunches, we need volunteers to set up before service, transport tables and lunches to the Community Center in Carolina Beach, share distribution, and participate with the planning committee. Contact Jean Graff at (309-339-9272 or 910-398-8668) would love to answer questions you may have, or just join us any Sunday.

Women's Bible Study & Outreach Group will meet Tuesday, October 3rd 9:30am in the church library. Martha Smith will talk about Eve and Deborah as we are studying all the women of the bible. She will also have light refreshments. We will continue to meet the first Tuesday of the month, same time and place. Please join us with your apple...don't forget your fig leaf. For any questions or information contact Suzan Katko at 724-309-79732.

Church Women United – All women are invited to attend their “Fall Forum” on Friday, October 6th at Mt. Nebo Missionary Baptist Church, 801 S. 10th Street. Coffee and sign in is at 9:30am with the forum beginning at 10:00. For more information contact Barbara Vought at 458-4636. For more information about CWU, visit their website at <http://www.cwunc.org/> Church Women United is an ecumenical movement that brings together Protestant, Catholic, Orthodox, and other Christian women in the United States and Puerto Rico.

Friday Morning Book Group: Summer vacations have come and gone. We will be starting our autumn Friday Book group - new book - Year of Biblical Womanhood by Rachel Held Evans. A one year experiment by an American woman to "try on" a life of living the life of a woman as prescribed in the Bible. Hilarious and enlightening, let's discuss this over the autumn weeks. Our group will meet on Friday October 6th at 9:30. Future meeting places may change from week to week. For more information and weekly location contact Jeanette at 412-477-7267. We will discuss a chapter each week, come join us.

Costa Rica Delegation Visit...Pastor Gilberto Quesada, President of the Iglesia Luterana Costarricense (The Lutheran Church of Costa Rica), Luis and Maria, delegates from the church in Costa Rica, will be visiting the North Carolina Synod from October 6-16! The delegation will be visiting us here at Kure Memorial the weekend of October 6-8! Our mission team from Kure Memorial has visited and worked on projects at Pastor Gilberto's church in Puriscal, on both of our trips to Costa Rica, so we have gotten to know him very well! He also participated in our closing worship on our last night in Costa Rica on our first trip in 2015 and had dinner with us on one of our evenings during our trip in 2016. The plan for his visit to our area is coming together, but at this point it will look something like this:

- ✠ Friday, October 6: Arrival in Raleigh. Pastor Dan will be picking them up and bringing them back to Kure Beach.
- ✠ Saturday, October 7: In the morning, the delegation will meet with pastors from the South Coastal Conference, which includes Wilmington, Southport, Ocean Isle and Kure Beach. In the afternoon, they will tour our area including the beach, the retreat center and our church.
- ✠ Sunday, October 8: They will worship with us on Sunday Morning! We will be having our annual fall celebration with a “Pig Pickin”! This will give us a great time to visit these wonderful folks! In the afternoon Pastor Dan will be taking them with him to Lutheridge in Arden, NC for the annual Fall Convocation, a retreat for pastors and other ministry professionals.

We are very excited for their visit and to be able to get to know folks from the Church in Costa Rica, whom we have been supporting over the last three years.

“Pig Pickin”...Sunday, October 8th, After worship we will have a catered “Pig Pickin” from “A&G BBQ & Chicken.” If anyone would like to prepare a dessert please contact Darcy Hearne at 910-547-9847 or let Rebecca know in the office by Tuesday, October 3rd.

Beer and Hymns at the Good Hops Brewery! Join us at the Good Hops Brewing Company in Carolina Beach for the next “Beer and Hymns” evening! It’s a fun time together to mix and mingle in a casual setting, drink a beverage or two and either listen to or sing along with some familiar and sometimes not so familiar hymns! Please come out and join us on Sunday, October 15 at 6pm for the next gathering time of Beer and Hymns! If you don’t like beer, they also have wine and other things to drink. Also you can bring a snack to share, a bite to eat...it’s pretty “low key.” We hope you will join us!

Women of the ELCA will meet Thursday, October 19, at 7:00 in the fellowship hall. Our special guest and leader for the evening will be Suzy Silvia of One Step Counseling, who will lead a session on how to manage anxiety and stress in today's world. All are welcome. Come and bring a friend!

Faith Explorers, our Confirmation Ministry will meet on Sunday, October 22 after worship and fellowship! Be ready for another adventure!

Book Club:

During October we will be reading The Other Einstein by Marie Benedict. It is the fascinating historical novel about Albert Einstein's first wife, Mileva Maric, who also happened to be a physicist. They met as students, fell in love and married. But, is there room in a marriage for more than one genius? We will meet to discuss the book, share some food and conversation, and perhaps witness a beautiful sunset on Sunday, October 22nd at 5:00 PM at the Fort Fisher Cafe. If you would like to borrow a book and join us, there are a couple of extra books in the office. Because it is a new book, it is in high demand and all copies must be returned to the office by October 8th so they can be returned to the library together.

Costa Rica Mission 2018: We had several folks attend the informational meeting on September 24, to learn more about and to begin preparing for our next journey to Costa Rica in June of 2018. Our next meeting will be held on Sunday, October 22 at 6:30pm! Please come out to learn more, or if you are committed to embarking on this incredible journey with us! Contact Pastor Dan with questions or to let him know you are interested!

Men's Breakfast for September...Come join us on Saturday, October 28 at 8:30am for a great breakfast, fun conversation and a meaningful devotion! Pastor Dan will be there at 7:30am to start cooking! So if you have something you want to bring or anything you want to contribute...please contact Pr. Dan! We would love to have you come early to help or just to have coffee and visit! See you on the 28th!

Adult Sunday school continues with our discussion/study of the Book of Romans. This is in celebration of the 500th anniversary of the Reformation coming up on October 31! It will be 500 years this year, that Martin Luther nailed his 95 Theses to the Castle Church door in Wittenburg, Germany, beginning the Reformation. The Book of Romans was a key book of the bible that helped Luther realize that we are saved by God's grace and not by our works. Come on out and join us! We begin our discussion around 9am in the library.

Women of the ELCA

Ms. Leymah Gbowee by Sue Edison-Swift

The day before Leymah Gbowee addressed 3,300 participants attending the Tenth Triennial Gathering, July 14, she took time for a conversation over a cup of green tea. Gbowee, a Lutheran from Monrovia, Liberia, led the interfaith movement of prayerful and persistent women credited with bringing peace to her civil-war torn country. She explained why, even as a Nobel Laureate, she continues to be a friend to Women of the ELCA.

“First, I am a Lutheran, a Christian,” said Gbowee. “I am the daughter of every institution that claims Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior of our world. “Second, I have a history with Women of the ELCA. Before I was known, before the Nobel, they supported me in my personal and professional development,” she said. “Four women helped pay my undergraduate tuition and ELCA leadership scholarships bridged the financial gap for my graduate studies. “Finally, my mother always told me, ‘ingratitude is a sin.’ For that reason, if I can possibly make it, when the church calls me, I will definitely be there.”

The conversation turned to the topic of hope. How does Gbowee stay so hopeful, so positive?

“Hope is something I must hold on to in this world of pessimism and injustice,” she said. “Then I see the young people I engage with in my new life, who despite everything still believe in the future. They still fight for justice, believe in justice. Then I remember, ‘who am I to give up hope when these people are not?’” Gbowee said in her new work, she addresses the needs of young people, especially their education, health and livelihood.

In 2012, she set up the Gbowee Peace Foundation Africa Foundation using her Nobel earnings. The foundation started with seven students. By 2016, two have graduated with a master’s degree, four have graduate certificates, three bachelor’s degrees, and three are high school graduates. “I am investing in the sustainable lives of these young people,” she said.

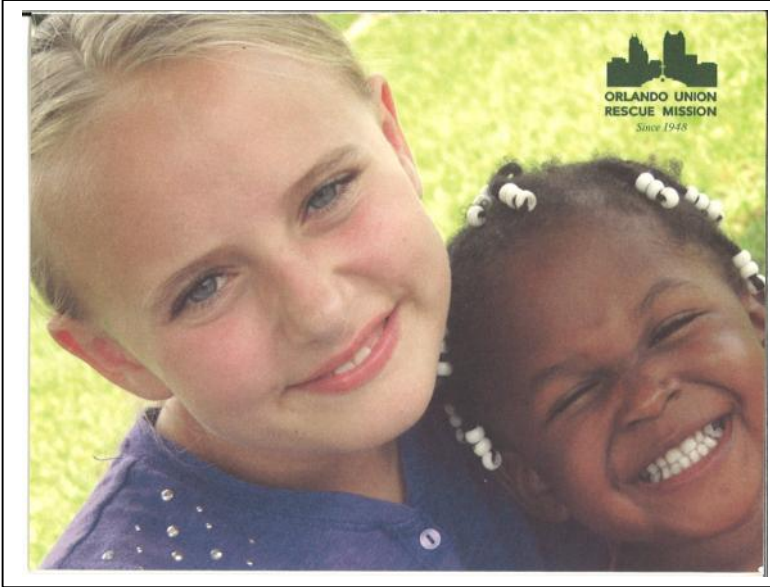

She also manages ‘Peace Through Fair Play,’ a camp that brings together disabled and non-disabled youth, mixing them in teams. “In our four years, we’ve touched 2,500 lives,” she said. “This year’s camp will include participants from two ‘opposing’ Liberian ethnic groups—and I intentionally put ‘opposing’ in quotes—Gios and Krahn.” She explained that 50 participants are Krahns and 50 are Gios. Former Liberian President Doe was a Krahn, and the warlord, Prince Johnson, is a Gios. Prince Johnson killed President Doe, she said.

“Many times, I’m up on a stage addressing a big crowd and then I leave,” she said. But at camp, “students, volunteers and participants get seven days of my full attention.” At the end of the day, she spends two hours in leadership development with the volunteers and staff. “I start with, ‘Great job, team.’ Then I might reflect on something I observed. How something might have been handled differently.” The hard work gives her energy immediately after speaking at the triennial, Gbowee flew to Ghana where she’ll then drive for five hours to the camp. “It will be OK,” Gbowee reassured. “The students will give me energy. Just seeing Hannah will be enough.” Hannah, she said, at 16 is the first in her village to finish sixth grade. However, the school she attended is shuttered. “Her mother is worried about Hannah’s future, now there’s no school. I reached out and Hannah is coming to camp. And from camp, she’ll go on to boarding school.”

When asked, “What will have made your time with Women of the ELCA a success,” Gbowee thought and said, “Being able to share what I understand ‘being Anew,’ is. “Being ‘anew’ is not an event. It’s a daily process, a journey of understanding. It’s a way of life. I pray God will use me to help women leave here revived and rejuvenated.” She said being anew means getting down on your knees each morning in prayer and getting up spiritually refreshed to go out and touch people’s lives. It means doing your part to bring the world one step closer to sanity.

Sue Edison-Swift, a member at First Lutheran, Decorah, Iowa, helped with communication during the triennial. From 1988-2000 she served as an editor of Lutheran Woman Today, now Gather.

APPRECIATION

Dear Mr. Dan + Ms. Erica, 9-12-17
A huge thank you to all of your group members for coming to serve with us this summer! We are so thankful to all of you for traveling to Orlando to give back to our guests! We loved having you volunteer and pray that God continue to bless your ministry. Thank you again for your support!
Humbly Serving,
Shalene Stanford

VOLUNTEERING

Help Center needs for October: Canned meat, jelly, canned fish, dry pasta, canned vegetables, macaroni & cheese and any other canned or packaged food items and toiletries are deeply appreciated. As you bring your gifts of food forward to place them in the baskets on the altar, you are invited to say a special prayer for those who will receive your gift! Sanctuary doors are open daily, 8am to 8pm.

Discipleship Committee: Thanks to all of you who continue to make this time together so enjoyable. It is always a great time of fellowship and conversation. Helping to host fellowship hour is a great way to offer your gifts of hospitality to our faith community! We encourage you to consider your participation in either setting up, providing snacks, or cleaning up and this would be most appreciated by the committee. If you would like to provide food/snacks, you can sign up on the sheet on the bulletin board in the Fellowship Hall or if anyone is interested in becoming involved with the Discipleship Committee contact Committee Chair, Barbara Vought at 910-458-4636 or barbaravought@charter.net.

Service Commission: Committee Chair, Minnie Larson 910-350-2626, minandhal@bellsouth.net

- The Help Center: reports servicing 104 households and 248 individuals in the month of August. The Island Cottage which earmarks all its sales/earnings to the Help Center is always in need of volunteers. Please contact any of the team if you are interested in helping.

- The Rice Bowl: offering in September will be directed for hurricane relief in Texas and Florida. The October collection of the Rice Bowl will go to ELCA Global Missions. This fund raising drive will continue throughout the entire month of October. The focus on missions by the ELCA, is in conjunction with the celebration of the 500th anniversary of the Lutheran church.

If you desire to make additional contributions to the ELCA Global Mission fund, please designate "ELCA Global Mission Funds" on your offering envelope.

- International Seamen's Center : a tour was arranged in August of the center by Susan Shearin. As a result, two more members of our congregation have volunteered to serve at the center. There is a continuing need for knit caps, work gloves and socks.

The next meeting of the commission is scheduled for Wednesday, October 11, at 1:30 p.m. in the church library. The meeting is open to all.

From our Financial Secretary on September Contributions:

Our tithes and contributions for the month of September were right on target. We projected that we would need $13,944 to support our Mission Plan. Actual contributions were $14,375. Thank you for your continued generosity in supporting our Mission Plan.

As we come to the end of our third quarter, we will be sending out Contribution statements once again. These statements will reflect your Tithes and Offerings and pledges to support the Mission Plan. Contributions made to special programs such as Vacation Bible School, Lawn Mower or other funds will not be reflected at this time. Rather, the year end statement, issued in December/January, will reflect all contributions and donations.

Community News:

Medicare's Open Enrollment period runs from October 15 through December 6th. Take advantage of this opportunity to see how your Prescription Drug Plan may be changing for 2018.
