JUNE 2024 NEWSLETTER

Our Mission Statement – As joyful followers of Jesus Christ, we welcome and care for all people. We boldly proclaim the Good News, share our faith, and love God by serving others.

Our Statement of Welcome – Accepting those who Christ has already accepted, Kure Memorial Lutheran Church affirms that all people, regardless of race, national origin, sexual orientation, or economic status, are unconditionally welcome to our community of faith and are invited to join us in worship, fellowship, and ministry.

FROM PASTOR DAN

“For it is by grace...” (Ephesians 2:8)

This is the time of year when we begin to see more and more surfers heading out to “catch some waves”!

Which makes me think...have you ever wondered where the phrase “Surfin’ on God’s Grace” ever came from...and what is really meant by it?

I’m sure you’ve noticed it, at least a time or two if you’ve read my column in the newsletter or received an email or letter from me!

If so...and even if you haven’t wondered...hopefully I’ve instilled some curiosity in you! Well...I’m not going to tell you here! But I do invite you to come to worship on June 9, where our worship service will be focused on that phrase! All of the scripture readings, the songs and prayers will help to give a fuller understanding of why that is such an important phrase in my life and ministry! I look forward to seeing you and sharing with you!

Surfin' on God's Grace!
Pastor Dan

YOUTH & FAMILY MINISTRY

Youth and Family Ministry

May has flown by for us this year. Our youth continue to do amazing things. This was our last month for Faithful Fun Friday's. The kids had an amazing year growing new friendships and learning more about their faith in God. To celebrate an awesome year we took the youth to Putters Pub in Carolina Beach. The kids were super appreciative and had so much fun!

Sunday lunches happened this past weekend. This is one of our youth's favorite activities. There were many helpers this week. We are always looking for more volunteers to help with any part of Sunday school. Please reach out to find out a way you can help our youth grow within our church.

The next event for our Youth and Family Ministry in VBS. This will be hosted on June 17-19 from 5pm to 8pm. If you have not done so already please sign up as soon as possible. If you are interested in volunteering any of the nights please reach out to find out how you can help!

From Pastor Dan: Chris and I are away... until June 7. Our daughter Heather is getting married out of town. Pastor Elizabeth Villegas will be filling in for me on Sunday, June 2. Many of you may remember Pastor Elizabeth, from when she filled in for me when I was away last October! Pastor Jonathan Conrad, of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Wilmington will be on call for me while I'm away in the case of an emergency. His number is 336-479-8665 if you have a need!

Monthly Men's Breakfast for June! We are looking forward to meeting for our June Men's Breakfast on June 22! Pastor Dan will be there to unlock and get coffee going around 8am. Breakfast begins at 8:30 am. Please let Pastor Dan know if you plan to bring something! Looking forward to seeing you all!

Holy Communion on the Second Tuesday of the Month! We invite you to join us on June 11 at 10:30, for a short Holy Communion Service in the sanctuary. So, mark your calendars... and if you can't make it this month...make plans to join us in July! Feel free to contact Pr. Dan as well to make other arrangements.

Our summer beach services will be starting up on Wednesday, June 12 beginning at 7 pm! We will be gathering on the beach at the access at Ave. N in Kure Beach this year! Please note the change of location from previous years! That access is accessible for folks with physical limitations. Come on out to worship with us! Bring your beach chair or blanket, sand toys for the kids and join us for a meaningful time together!

Food Pantry Box: The last words in our KMLC Mission Statement affirm that we "love God by serving others." These words are not just printed on the cover of our Worship outline each Sunday. Rather, they are words that we live by every day. One demonstration of this is our Congregation's continuing commitment to assist individuals in our local community with food insufficiencies. Your donations of groceries on the 2nd Sunday of each month, designated as "Pantry Box Sunday," and, any day, are a demonstration of this care and concern. In addition to enabling the daily stocking of our Food Pantry Box, your generosity has amounted to 48 bags of groceries for the Help Center since the start of 2024! Thank you so much for your support. A big thank you, as well, to Harriet McNeill. Harriet is our faithful grocery bags picker-upper and Help Center deliverer!! For the month of June, we will be collecting: canned fruit, jelly, canned meat, cold cereal, and rice (1 lb bags). PANTRY BOX SUNDAY will be Sunday June 9. For more information, please contact John Ellen (67jellen@gmail.com) or MJ Shalanski (maryjo.shalanski@gmail.com).

Sunday School: Our elementary Sunday School student group has grown! We need additional volunteers to help our Sunday School program continue to flourish, and to offer more classes. Please contact Christine for more details (kmlc.preschool@gmail.com).

Please let the office know if you will be joining us.

“After her husband is killed, Abby Finn retreats to Goose Inlet where someone is poaching sea turtle eggs and leaving human body parts beneath the nests. Is her husband to blame? In her quest to clear her husband’s name, Abby discovers covert investigative reporter skills and a talent for breaking and entering. She gets dumped into an alligator-patrolled creek and is chased across a river while a mammoth container ship bears down on her kayak. Despite the threats on her life, will she succeed in identifying the poacher, the mutilator, and the murderer? Will she discover who killed her husband?” (goodreads.com)

Juneteenth Activities 2024: Juneteenth, officially Juneteenth National Independence Day, is a federal holiday in the United States. It is celebrated annually on June 19 to commemorate the end of slavery. The holiday's name is a portmanteau of the words "June" and "nineteenth", as it was on June 19, 1865, when Major General Gordon Granger ordered the final enforcement of the Emancipation Proclamation in Texas at the end of the American Civil War. Some local events to commemorate and celebrate Juneteenth in the area are listed here with additional information. Please see some suggested community activities on the next page.

The afternoon opens with libations and a reading from Langston Hughes followed by words from historians Sonya Bennetone Patrick and Mama Makeda. Hear music and poetry from Soltree Reign and take part in community conversations from local organizations. Sample local flavors from food trucks, and enjoy children's activities in the galleria. Regular admission applies. Suggested donation: $5

FROM THE FINANCIAL SECRETARY

We want to thank everyone who contributed to making our May contributions so successful. Thanks to a few extra Tithes received, we met our Mission Plan goal for the month. These contributions gave us some funds that begin to make up for our previous monthly deficits. During the month of May, 66 families contributed - with the weekly range being 18 to 28 families. Our Mission Plan goal for $ 20,202 and our actual tithes and offerings were $ 27,586. Our Rice Bowl offering for Soaring As Eagles amounted to $ 357.50. We are thankful to our KMLC family who continue to support our Mission Plan through generous giving.

VOLUNTEERING

Sunday Lunch Ministry: We always welcome assistance with the weekly shopping, lunch preparation, distribution of lunches, and donation of water. If you would like to assist, contact Jean Graff, 309-339-9272, or drop by the Fellowship Hall after service as the lunches are prepped and packed. We would love to have you!

A Call for Amazing, Selfless, Dedicated Volunteers! From Becky Doherty, Program Coordinator New Hanover County Senior Resource Center (910-798-6406, 910-798-6411, or bdoherty@nhcgov.com 2222). Food insecurity continues to be a huge issue in New Hanover County. Food programs are growing weekly, and we are working to spread the word about the need for volunteers. Over the next few weeks, we hope to fill many of the vacant volunteer roles with the following community partners:

- New Hanover County Home Delivered Meals Program: volunteer drivers needed now more than ever; permanent routes are available. And mileage reimbursement offered.
- Bread for Life Senior Pantry: 2-3 volunteers needed to assist with delivering food every 3rd Friday of the month from the Bread for Life Senior Pantry (N. Kerr) to low-income residents at Hadden Hall (Caswell St.). Loading and unloading cars with food. Reliability and good transportation are paramount. Shift is approx. 8:30-11:00.
- Feast Down East Mobile Farmers Market: FDE volunteers greet customers, bag food purchases, and as cashier utilize an iPad system (if applicable). Shifts are less than three hours and volunteers will be on their feet. Volunteers receive a $15 market credit for helping out and there is flexibility as you choose your shift and location through SignUpGenius.
- First Fruit Ministries: Various roles available. FFM is a nonprofit organization in Wilmington that provides outreach (including many meals/food programs) and supportive housing to people experiencing homelessness and human trafficking.
- Good Shepherd Center: Front Desk Volunteers assist shelter staff and interact with guests. Saturday and Sunday sorters needed for Second Helpings food salvage program. Sub drivers and subs for dinner groups also needed.

AmeriCorps is seeking volunteer drivers: Help homebound seniors by delivering meals (AmeriCorp serves 650 seniors per day!). Monday through Friday, schedules are flexible. Drive your own car; reimbursement for mileage is available. Routes take 1.5-2 hours. Background screening required. Orientation June 12, at 2:00 and another will be held in July. Contact Becky Doherty at 910-798-6406 or bdoherty@nhcgov.com).

The poem on the next page originally appeared in the June 2023 issue of WALTER magazine. In this poem, North Carolina Poet Laureate Jaki Shelton Green writes about the joy of Juneteenth and the horror that came before it. Green resides in Mebane, North Carolina. She is offering a poetry workshop at the Cameron Art Museum on Saturday, June 29th: 11:00 am – 2:00 pm. Registration is required. We are the breath the skin the muscles the heart the hands the unmeasurable bones whispering across the Atlantic Ocean. We are the bellies of Middle Passage ships. We are blue door of no return on Goree Island. We are the mornings that broke with our living and our dead fastened together. We are the eyes bearing witness to sharks following our human cargo waiting for the feast of dead or sick bodies tossed overboard. We are the shadows in the back of the eyes of daughters throwing themselves and their babies overboard. Our blood is the red that stole the blue of the ocean. We are scattered bones rising up from the bottom of the Atlantic revealing a pathway marking the route. We are the fruit of those bone trees planted deep in the fertile Atlantic. We carry a DNA of survival, strength, extraordinary will. From forced migration to slave market we are all the links of all the chains of the past and future. Binding spiritual links from the bones in the Atlantic to the bones of slaves in a place like Galveston Texas where ancestral whispers became the wind... Caressing tired bones with a timeless spirit of rebirth and love. The wind heard first. Whispering from the trees, from the ground beneath their feet, whispering...

Freedom

Freedom

Freedom

The wind knew and rattled tiny bones beneath the feathers of birds. The wind knew. Giving voice to the rain falling creating fertile freedom ground. The wind whispered to every butterfly, every insect pollinating from flower to flower. Freedom. Freedom. Freedom. Eagles stopped in midair to listen to the wind's song... Freedom came today. Freedom came today... And because our people are a chosen people we could understand the dance of the trees, the tremble of the water. Hoes stopped striking. Hands stopped picking. Feet stood still. A mighty storm named freedom rained over them. Soaked them clean. Mothers kissed hope into the air above babies' heads. Grandmothers and grandfathers stretched prayers into a sky that would not bend. Men asked where will this freedom live. Children asked what does this freedom taste like. What does this freedom smell like. What does this freedom sound like. What does this freedom look like. Mama, tell me what this freedom gonna feel like. We screamed a jubilee into the clouds. We shed the skin of a slave. We shed the rags of a slave into the river. Our freedom skin was a shining brand-new nakedness that outshined the sun. We be clothed in freedom's gold. On Juneteenth dead bones came alive and flew on the wings of Sankofa birds all the way back to the river where blood is born... All the way back to the womb that never forgets. We are the Juneteenth resurrection... We are the ancient prayers answered. We are the cup overflowing inviting generations to this feast of freedom.

A Prayer for Father's Day- to celebrate the influence of Fathers and Fatherhood

Let us praise those fathers who have striven to balance the demands of work, marriage, and children with an honest awareness of both joy and sacrifice. Let us praise those fathers who, lacking a good model for a father, have worked to become a worthy and virtuous father.

Let us praise those fathers who, by their own account, were not always there for their children, but who continue to offer those children, now grown, their love and support. As well, let us pray for those fathers who have been wounded by words and actions of their children.

Let us praise those fathers who, despite marital discord, have remained in their children's lives. Let us praise those fathers whose children are adopted, and whose love and support has nurtured a thriving life.

Let us praise those fathers who, as stepfathers, freely choose the obligation of fatherhood and earned their step children's love and respect. Let us praise those fathers who have lost a child to death, and continue to hold the child in their heart.

Let us praise those men who have no children, but cherish the next generation as if they were their own. Let us praise those men who have "fathered" us in their role as mentors and guides.

Let us praise those men who are about to become fathers; may they openly delight in their children. And let us praise those fathers who have died, but live on in our memory and whose love continues to nurture us.

(- Prayer of Kirk Loadman adapted by Debra Mooney, PhD)
